... Make a donation to the Deacon's Fund on the 1st Sunday of each month.

... Bring coins for Two Cents-a-Meal on the 3rd Sunday of each month.

... Bring non-perishable food to our Hunger Barrel for M.U.M., any time.

Please read further to find out about other ways you can be involved at Warner and in the community.

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Members and Friends,

Not many of us have made our living by farming, so it is more likely that it is in the context of managing a garden that we have made a decision about what kind and how many seeds need to be planted. Our stewardship theme for this year is “Seeds for the Harvest,” based upon a verse from 2 Corinthians 9:6, “A few seeds make a small harvest, but many seeds make a big harvest.” Think of your financial gifts as seeds planted to which God will bring growth. The larger the total amount we are able to give to the ministry of Warner Memorial Church, the greater will be the ‘harvest.’ That is true in part because it is only beyond a certain margin of giving where true ministry takes place. It takes a certain amount of funding just to have upkeep for our facility, utilities for it be useable, and insurance to cover some dreadful possibilities. Once we get beyond these kinds of costs, that’s when the seed can truly be that which feeds physical and spiritual hunger.

Think of your ideas and energy as seeds. It was an idea that led to the formation of the Learning Center for Young Children many years ago. Look how many families have benefited from the growth of that idea over the years! It was an idea that led to the food barrel being made to be a reminder of those who suffer from hunger and a repository for what can meet some of that need. Thousands of pounds of food have come from the growth of that idea! You’ll have a fresh opportunity to share your ideas and energy for ministry through our upcoming Seeds for the Harvest survey.

Many seeds make a big harvest if God provides for the growth. Yes, our giving of ourselves through financial gifts, sharing our gifts of dreams and hopes, along with gifts of our time and energy are all expressions of faith that God can use such things to bring about growth around here. I think such faith is well-placed. And I think God has placed us here to be involved with bringing about quite a productive garden.

With anticipation,

Kirby Lawrence Hill

UPDATE ON OUR CAPITAL FUNDS CONSTRUCTION PROJECT

The process of getting to a point where we can close on the loan with Presbyterian Investment and Loan Program (PILP) has taken longer than we were led to expect. There is no problem with us getting to the closing, it just has been a long process, including such things as someone having to go to Baltimore to get church documents that showed whenever we changed the number of trustees for the Warner Church Corporation throughout our history. It is hard to figure out why the trust company needed to have copies of such things, but such requests have slowed things down. We are thankful that the head of the construction company has been very understanding with these delays. One good thing that has happened through this delay – our interest rate went down from 3.75 to 3.5 and then, because we give over 10% of our funds to Presbyterian mission, our rate went all the way down to 3.25%. That will save us thousands of dollars in interest payments. We believe we are within days of closing on the loan and then the way will be clear for construction to begin.

‘GOODBYE’ AND ‘HELLO’ TO JANITORIAL STAFF

At the end of October, we said goodbye to Ronald Tyner, who has been our custodian for the last seven years. Ronald has been a friendly presence here and has served faithfully as part of the Warner staff. We wish him God’s blessings and all that his heart desires. In November, we welcome Debbie Crown as our new custodian. If you are over here at Warner when she is, please introduce yourself and welcome her. (Debbie is proprietor of D & M Maintenance and Lawn Care, LLC.)

HARVEST BRUNCH

Please note that on Sunday, November 24, Warner celebrates the season with a “Harvest Brunch” in the Social Hall following worship, instead of the traditional breakfast. All are welcome to come to the brunch!

COME AND ENJOY—VIOLIN RECITAL, NOVEMBER 17

On Sunday afternoon, November 17, at 4:00, you all are invited to the Warner Sanctuary to enjoy Amy Beth Horman’s violin recital. Amy will be accompanied by Brad Clark on the piano. Bring your friends and neighbors to enjoy classical music in an intimate setting. A reception time will follow for visiting with the artists.

STEWARDSHIP

SEEDS FOR THE HARVEST

This past year has been remarkable for the changes that have occurred in our church. We now want to build on these changes. To motivate our thoughts and minds, consider the words from Paul's second letter to the Corinthians, quoted above (see page 3) in the Pastor's letter, "A few seeds make a small harvest, but many seeds make a big harvest." We want to assure that the seeds planted this year will blossom, and we want to enhance the harvest by contributing more seeds and cultivating the many seeds that are and will be planted. Furthermore, the more we give of ourselves, the more we reap the benefits of the Christian life. Our church can and should be a focal point of our giving.

During the past year, to assure that our church serves its congregation and forms a base for its potential growth and outreach to fill the world's need for the love that faith in God provides, we planned the installation of a new tower to assist the handicapped; welcomed a new music director and a new organist to continue and enhance our worship and fellowship; obtained new hymnals that reach a broad range of worship needs; sponsored mission trips with hands-on support to those in great need; provided funds to mission work in Haiti, Congo and other places far and near; and enriched each other in many activities that increase our faith and fellowship.

We, the people of Warner Memorial Church, share a desire to meet the needs of people in our church, in our local community and throughout the world. We also want to enhance the love and fellowship we share with each other and to express worship for the God that is the source of our love. To meet the needs, we will be contributing money and services over the coming year. On November 17, our pledge Sunday, we're asked to make a commitment for the coming year as to what we are willing to do and contribute. These pledges will enable our church leaders to make plans for the coming year. We ask that you make that commitment known on the pledge forms and the "Seeds for Harvest" Survey that will be provided.

Grace be with you,

The Warner Stewardship Campaign Committee

(Susan Bresee, Ben Fulton, Bob Koch, Charity Singletary, Natalie Thompson)

BOARD OF DEACONS

WARNER DEACONS LEAD US IN HELPING “RAINBOW PLACE”

It is that time of year again when the Board of Deacons is once again coordinating Warner’s efforts in preparing and serving dinners at Rainbow Place on Saturday evenings throughout the month of November. If you are not familiar with Rainbow Place, it is a women’s shelter located in Rockville Presbyterian Church. Warner has been assisting them for over twenty years through the preparation and serving of dinners, donations of clothing and toiletries and monetary donations.

Through the years, the women have always expressed how much they enjoy the food that Warnerites have prepared and enjoyed the company of the servers. If you are interested in either preparing a dish or serving, please see the sign-up chart in the hallway outside the church office. To paraphrase Rev. Carl Davis of First Baptist Church Ken-Gar on Sunday, October 13th, do the right thing and as Jesus commands in John 21:17 “Feed my sheep.” The Board of Deacons thanks you as does Rainbow Place.

HAVE YOU RECEIVED YOUR WARNER GROCERY BAG YET?

We hope that by now each Warner household will have received their new Warner reusable grocery tote that advertises MUM (Mid-County United Ministries), MANNA, and Rainbow Place. The bag, designed by our own Tim Cook, was a joint effort between the Outreach and Fellowship Commission and the Deacons. Our hope is that the totes, hanging on your doorknob or in your car, will be a reminder to gather and deliver groceries to the “For I Was Hungry” barrel at the church. If any Warnerite would like an extra bag beyond the first complimentary one, they are $1.50 each, while supplies last. These monies will then go back into the Deacons Fund to help us continue our programs--especially those that help relieve hunger in our community.

Stay tuned to the December MEMO for news of holiday activities of the Board of Deacons---

Elizabeth Bunn, Moderator

 Please support the Warner Memorial Deacons’ Fund by contributing on the first Sunday of each month. You may use the special envelopes in the pew racks. Please give generously to help our neighbors in need.

COMMUNITY – MISSION

Here we celebrate three examples of Warner’s Commitment to service and mission – the first one is a monthly event on the third Sunday (which began over 20 years ago), the second an annual offering of our denomination (now about 30 years on), and the third a special event this year (with possible repeats in the future). In each case, thanks to the organizers and those who devote time and money to these causes:

■ Two Cents-a-Meal -- On October 20, we collected $174 for hunger programs, nearby and far away. Our discretionary portion (40%) for September and October goes to the Farmers and Hunters Feeding the Hungry program. For November and December, that portion will help Mid-county United Ministries (MUM) and their food pantry in Wheaton.

■ Peacemaking Offering – In October, we collected more than $1,300 for nearby, national and worldwide programs that work to instill peaceable community building.

■ Silent Auction & Tea – On Saturday, October 26 in Warner’s social hall, this special event garnered more than $4,200 toward mission programs and projects that Warner Church supports. Thanks to Barbara Shaw and all who helped make the Silent Auction a success, including those who set up the site, those who donated refreshments and items/services for sale, and those who came, bought and supported the event !

OUTREACH AND FELLOWSHIP

SIMPLER FOOD FARE FOR “SIMPLE SUNDAY”

Warner’s Outreach & Fellowship Commission, along with the Hospitality Committee and other groups, began in October a new “tradition” called “Simple Sunday.” To help us appreciate our blessings and to keep in mind those folks who don’t enjoy so much bounty, Warner Memorial is attempting to make the third Sunday of the month fellowship time following worship a simpler affair, with light snacks and beverages instead of the rather full meal that we’ve been enjoying. Emphasis on the third Sunday in November (and possibly in coming months) will be on hunger relief programs, including the food barrel for MUM and the Two Cents-a-Meal offering. Thanks to all for your understanding – and for your future contributions to help others.

WORSHIP AND MUSIC

NEW HYMNALS

It was with great joy that our congregation dedicated our new Glory to God hymnals on October 20. We sang with our hearts full of praise just as the people of God have always done. Now we need to pass on our older blue hymnals. These hymnals are being placed on tables in the social hall. They are arranged “somewhat” alphabetically by last name of donors. While we hope to pass along many copies of these older hymnals to newly-forming congregations or other worship groups, we want people in our own congregation to be able to take home books that are particularly meaningful to them.

- People who have donated books or have had family members dedicated to are welcome to take home those copies.
- Others are invited to take home one copy of unclaimed hymnals.
- If you know of a group who might make good use of some of these hymnals, please give Rev. Hill information including a contact person for the group.

Thank you again to all the people who have donated and made dedications for our new Glory to God hymnals. It is not too late to make dedications or a donation. You may even want to consider using this as a gift for Christmas, birthdays, anniversaries, or other special occasions. Forms are available in the office.

Kay Gorman

🎵 NOTE: The large-print version of the new Glory to God hymnal includes the music score! If you would like to use these larger pages during worship, please contact the church office so that we may provide enough copies on Sunday mornings. Each Sunday, the pages used in worship will be provided in loose leaf binders available from the ushers.

June Eakin

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

A SEED STORY

In June, 2011, Rev. Hill, John Horman, and I attended the Montreat Music and Worship Conference. The three of us attended a week of morning workshops led by Amanda Powell, a young, gifted music leader and musician who is passionate about global hymnody. The international hymns that were to be included in the new Presbyterian hymnal, Glory to God were highlighted in the sessions.

As the week progressed, a dream began to grow and on Friday, Kirby, John, and I met with Amanda. We discussed the possibility of her coming to Warner Church to introduce the new hymnal to the Warner congregation as well as musicians, choir directors, and worship committee folk from other churches in National Capital Presbytery.

To make the dream a reality, several questions needed to be addressed: When was Amanda available? (She is a music director for a church in Ohio, as well as in demand as a music workshop and worship leader for national conferences); what resources were available to fund her coming to National Capital Presbytery? Finally, how would both the local and wider church community be invited to hear her?

After exchanging many e-mails, the dates for Amanda leading a weekend event were set for World Communion, 2013. We were hopeful that the new hymnals would arrive by then (they arrived a few days before the event!) and were excited about singing the global hymns from Glory to God in the context of a time in the church year when congregations throughout the four corners of the earth celebrate our communion in Christ. To help defray the cost of bringing Amanda to Kensington, we applied and received a grant of $1,000.00 from SOURCE, an ecumenical resource center of National Capital Presbytery. The Warner Session approved use of up to $1,000.00 from the Rodkey Fund, a special designated fund for music and Christian Education to help fund the remaining cost of the event.

A Saturday morning workshop for musicians, choir directors, choir members, and members of worship committees, drew twenty two people, from 11 congregations in Virginia, D.C., and Maryland, including a group from the Baltimore Presbytery.

In the afternoon of Saturday, October 5, a gathering of 45 children, youth, and adults from the Warner congregation attended a “sing-along” in our sanctuary and had a chance to sing from the new hymnals. The next day, on World Communion Sunday, Amanda Powell served as a guest music leader, and worship was graced with the sound of choirs of all ages singing hymns from far and near, familiar and new. After the weekend, she expressed her goal of encouraging participants to “not be afraid to really embody the music, get it in to their hearts and then open in invitation as they invite others to make the song their own.”

Amanda's leadership throughout the weekend was a wonderful way to observe World Communion and to introduce the new hymnal. Seeds were planted for new songs to be sung.

LIBRARY NOTES

Please take time during these coming fall and winter months to enjoy Warner's Library. Located at the west end of the Common Room, our library has a variety of books, including children's books, available for you to check out for a month. We also have references and pictorials, and – on the rolling carts -- magazines and newsletters with inspirational articles to read without “taking them out.” You'll notice the recent addition of some fine new chairs and couches (donated) that enhance the library experience.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

COME HEAR OUR GUEST SPEAKER

On Sunday, November 10, after worship, Warner's Presbyterian Women will be holding their annual meeting to elect officers (Moderator and Secretary) and approve the budget for next year. In addition to the brief business meeting, we are especially excited to have an opportunity to hear Emma Clark's first-hand account of her experiences in Africa and the status of healthcare among women and children in international crisis situations.

Emma is a public health professional with experience in conflict, post-conflict and refugee settings and is also near and dear to one of Warner's own, as she happens to be Lisa Smeallie's niece.

Emma Clark is a registered nurse who specializes in coordinating and providing healthcare in remote and challenging environments. While working for International Medical Corps (IMC), she has coordinated nutrition programs in Somaliland and South Central Somalia, set-up a health and nutrition program for a new 90,000-person refugee camp in Dadab, Kenya; managed and analyzed data related to emergency health services, tuberculosis and integrated management of childhood illness in Baghdad; and assisted in the development and implementation of data collection tools to serve Iraqi refugee children in Amman, Jordan. Her work has also taken her to Haiti, South Sudan, Kenya, Botswana and numerous other locations in Africa and the Middle East. She has recently returned from Jordan where she was working in a Syrian refugee camp.

Emma is currently the Reproductive Health Officer for IMC while completing her clinical practice requirements to become a Certified Nurse Midwife at Mercy Medical Center. Please plan to join us that day to hear what we are certain will be an interesting, educational, and inspiring presentation.

Please stop by the PW Bulletin board across from the coat rack on the Calvert Street church entrance and take notice of the current issue of the Horizons PQ magazine that is available for you to take and peruse at your leisure. Please return it when you are done so others may enjoy it as well. Warner's PW has purchased this subscription so any Warner woman can not only enjoy the interesting articles, but learn more about PW's national and global efforts and issues of interest. Each issue has a theme, with the most recent edition reporting on the 2013 mission trip to Appalachia.

“Whatever you did for one of the least of these brother and sisters of mine you did for me” – Matthew 27:40b

The Creative Ministries Offering Committee of Presbyterian Women met in Louisville, KY in March and approved 36 grants totaling $705,544 from the Thank Offering received in 2012. The committee selects programs that relieve pain, provide clean water, alleviate homelessness, provide education, promote health, and improve the lives of women and children throughout the world. Our offerings will:

- Teach Presbyterian women to teach other women in South Sudan
- Purchase a minivan for a program that serves youth in Arkansas
- Provide housing for women and children in Roanoke, VA
- Educate local women leaders on reducing disaster risk in Guatemala

To see more about these and more projects visit www.presbyterianwomen.org/thank.

Since 1888, Presbyterian women have joyfully expressed gratitude for God's blessings by sharing their resources with people in need. The Warner Presbyterian Women will collect the 2013 Thank Offering through the month of November. Please put your offering (checks payable Presbyterian Women WMPC) in the special Thank Offering envelope and place it in the offering plate or deliver to the church office. Envelopes can be found in the paper edition of the MEMO, on the PW bulletin board, during Fellowship Hour, and in the brochure racks. Warner PW will kick-off the offering during the Fellowship Hour on November 3rd, which PW will host, and we will dedicate our 2013 offering at the PW annual meeting on November 10th.

The book discussion held in October was great fun and well-attended. We are looking forward to round two on Friday, November 8th at 7:30 PM. While the book, date and time are set, we are still finalizing the venue and will send out the final location via email, bulletin, and Warner Weekly closer to the date. The book the November meeting is "A Thousand Splendid Suns" by Khaled Hosseini (author of "The Kite Runner"). It is "an incredible chronicle of thirty years of Afghan history and a deeply moving story of family, friendship, faith, and the salvation to be found in love... With heart-wrenching power and suspense, Hosseini shows how a woman's love for her family can move her to shocking and heroic acts of self-sacrifice, and that in the end it is love, or even the memory of love, that is often the key to survival." There are currently more than 30 copies available in the county library system. Based on the number of holds, you won't be able to borrow an electronic copy unless you already have it. Of course it is available for purchase as an e-book as well as hard cover and paperback. Let Lisa Smeallie know if you have trouble getting a copy, she has indicated she is happy to check out and deliver one to anyone who needs it.

For those who plan ahead, our next book group meeting will be on Tuesday, January 14 at the regularly scheduled Joy Circle time (7:30 PM in the church library). The book for that meeting is “Expecting Adam: True Story of Birth, Rebirth & Everyday Magic” by Martha Beck. And of course, Joy Circle will meet on Tuesday, November 12 at 7:30PM in the Common Room to continue its discussions on the book of Ruth, part of the Uppity

Women of the Bible video series. If anyone missed the first meeting and would like to catch up on the series before then, let me know. We can either get the DVD to you to watch on your own or arrange a time to screen it at church. Those of us who were there at the first meeting thoroughly enjoyed it.

Save the Date! Warner’s PW Coordinating Team is making preliminary plans for a Winter Retreat at Bishop Claggett Center in Buckeystown, MD. The dates are January 17-19, 2014 and the program, God’s Magic Kingdom, is planned and coordinated by Rev. Monique Ellison and Barbara DeLorenzo both from St. Christopher’s Church in Linthicum, MD. This is a pre-planned retreat; we will participate with women from other churches. The Coordinating Team found the theme intriguing so thought it would be fun to try something a bit different. If you think you may be interested, please contact one of the members of the Coordinating Team or your Circle leader. Look for more details in the December MEMO.

2013-2014 Bible Study

Reflections Circle will be meeting in the parlor the second Sunday of the month, November 9th, from 9:30-10:30AM and continues the Horizons Bible Study, “An Abiding Hope”. The books of Exodus and Deuteronomy invite us to remember that the central actor in human experience — in our own lives and in the experiences described in Exodus and Deuteronomy—is God. Our God is one who redeems, who brings liberty and fulfillment even when we do not deserve it, when we cannot redeem ourselves. We have the assurance of God’s abiding presence as individuals and as a community of faith. This presence helps us see that God’s redemption is more than a “saving from” harsh circumstances; it also is a “saving to” the fullness of life God intends for humanity. The author, Janice Catron invites us to explore Exodus and Deuteronomy with her and see together the promise of what our relationship with God can be and the realities of what that relationship often becomes. It is God our Redeemer who, by grace, gives us the power to help ourselves and others live into the fullness God intends for us, and to move forward as people who have been set free.

Do you have an idea for an outing or activity that may be of interest to other women at Warner – dinner and a movie, field trip to Hillwood or other museum, weekend walking group, cooking class, knitting class, serving at Rainbow Place...?? The PW Coordinating Team is open to any ideas you may have and look forward to hearing from you. It just takes one person and one idea to get started.
